

ENERGY SECTOR

The R&D Conference in Chuuk 24-28 January 2022 resulted in four recommendations:

Recommendations	Responsible Parties	Timeline	Progress
1. Update the National Energy Policy and State Action Plans, which should include: A. Recycling of PV System components, including batteries. B. A legislative review for promoting RE and EE through fiscal incentives for both government and private sector. C. Meaningful private sector participation in public policy dialogue and implementation (IPPs). D. Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs). E. Development of an Energy Sector Communications Action Plan.	FSM R&amp;D SPC MRO FSMACC DECHEM	6 to 12 months.	NA
2. Update the Energy Master Plan to include: A. A significant increase in emerging RE technologies and energy storage. B. A Transport component. C. Training and Data Collection.	FSM R&amp;D FSM TC&amp;I DevParts AMU	24 months.	NA
3. Support full establishment of the AMU Secretariat to improve overall coordination and governance within the Energy Sector.	FSM R&amp;D AMU Office of the President DevParts	12 months.	NA
4. Develop a National Water and Sanitation Master Plan to include: A. National Water Policy and State Action Plans.	FSM R&amp;D AMU Office of the President DevParts ODA	12-24 months.	NA